

THE FRA C4 LINE

Animals are able to produce Butyric and Lactic acid. Phytoenes are extracts of plants.

Mother Nature obviously had good reasons for this.

She knew that the combination of these would be the animal's best help for a healthy growth and lower risks for infections like E-coli, Salmonella and Clostridium.

